Dear Mr. Hornan,

I am very pleased, as patron of the Czech British Chamber of Commerce (CBCC), to write to you and the members of the Chamber as I highly appreciate the role of the CBCC in the promotion of Czech and British economic and trade cooperation.

In these times of the reshuffling of the relationship between the United Kingdom and the European Union, it is a joint hope and desire of all of us that the present excellent trade between the Czech Republic and the UK will remain strong and continue to grow in the future.

Business and trade, in my opinion, have that ability to overcome all obstacles as people seek to interact with each other for mutual benefit – like culture they cross all boundaries and bring us together. I am very pleased that the CBCC promotes the good name of the Czech Republic in the United Kingdom and helps to match the business interests of Czechs and British, thus creating a space to enhance the prosperity of both sides.

I wish the CBCC much success in enlarging both the membership base and the pool of potential business opportunities and I am sure that the CBCC will be helping the Czech and British businesses to overcome any possible barriers in trading.

Kind regards

Mr. Ladislav Hornan
